In Grove City, Ohio

GARDENS AT GANTZ

A labyrinth has been added to the 10 herb gardens at Gantz Farm in Grove City. Walking the labyrinth can be for relaxation, meditation, or just for plain fun. The park also features paved trails, a meandering stream and tennis courts.

THE ENCAMPMENT

This early spring event is held at Century Village at Fryer Park. Learn history from reenactors as it relates to the Revolutionary and Civil Wars and life on the Midwest frontier.

BLAST AT BEULAH

Celebrate our independence at one of the largest suburban fireworks shows with aerial and ground displays; live band performances.

BALLOONS 'n TUNES

Experience hot air balloons up close. Watch them fill and launch. Night glows offer great photo opportunities; tethered rides, live bands and more activities.

E-JET INTERNATIONAL

Hear the whine of jet turbine engines as these large scale model aircraft, some over 12 feet, compete in a two-day event at their own Field of Dreams Airport.

ARTS IN THE ALLEY

Music and arts festival in Grove City Town Center. Two day event the third weekend in September. Two entertainment stages, all free. Various locations host quilt, photography, fine art, craft and stained glass shows.

HARVEST DAY

Relive the good old days and learn about everyday life and activities around the home in the 1850's. Visit a log house and loft, log barn and attend a class in a one room school.
